respite & retreat

KPS Trebullom provides an opportunity for respite and retreat. The 18th Century farmhouse is set in 11 acres of countryside and farmland in a rustic and beautiful part of north Cornwall.

Whether you are wanting restful and quiet seclusion, or to take part in the variety of opportunities on offer in this tranquil setting your stay will be catered for.

KPS Trebullom offers day trips to many of the attractions Cornwall has to offer. Also we offer onsite counselling and a range of recognised complementary therapies carried out by skilled and registered professionals.

KPS offers effective liaison with your local Department of Adult Social Care, Children's Services, Health Services and other statutory and voluntary organisations that may be a source of referrals or provide other services to service users.

practical support

Advice, advocacy and support with DWP, housing benefits, Income Support and JSA, DLA, and related premiums. Assisting people to access Social Fund and other grants and loans, affordable furniture and the provision of adequate support in resettlement.

other advice & advocacy

Support with money advice and debt management assistance. Support and assistance in negotiating with utilities, landlord and private companies to manage personal debts.

training & skills opportunities

KPS Trebullom is able to offer short training and skills opportunities in woodworking, weaving and pottery with access to a fully equipped dairy and bakery workshop. These facilities are exclusive to those attending KPS Trebullom. These workshops are optional and can be arranged during your stay.

KPS Trebullom provides a confidential and empathetic provision of respite and retreat for vulnerable people living with HIV/AIDS, their families and carers which achieves the objective of improving or maintaining independence.

The service we offer also intends to provide specialist support particularly in times of crisis, enabling people to assess their independent living/life skills and to develop necessary skills through the provision of training including; advocacy and/or referral for support.

KPS have the necessary knowledge, skills and experience in a variety of support needs and professionals working with people living with HIV and their carers.
